California Water Service Group Promotes Gerald A. Simon to Chief Safety and Emergency Preparedness Officer

SAN JOSE, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 03/01/16 -- California Water Service Group (NYSE: CWT) today announced the promotion of Gerald A. Simon to Chief Safety and Emergency Preparedness Officer, effective March 1, 2016.

Previously, as Director of Safety and Emergency Services, Simon's responsibilities included updating emergency response plans, providing incident command system (ICS) training, and conducting annual emergency operations center (EOC) exercises.

Prior to joining the company in 2013, Simon provided fire services consulting to numerous cities and counties in the United States and abroad. He has 15 years of experience as Fire Chief for major metropolitan areas, including Oakland, California, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and Santa Clara, California. He also taught emergency preparedness and hazardous materials courses at the California Specialized Training Institute (CSTI), enabling agencies to comply with Federal Emergency Management Agency standards.

Simon has been recognized by the Executive Development Institute as Fire Chief of the Year and by the League of California Cities as a Distinguished Service Award winner.

"Safety and emergency preparedness are extremely important to us, and we are fortunate to have a professional of Gerald's caliber to ensure that we are following best practices," said President and Chief Executive Officer Martin A. Kropelnicki. "He is a welcome addition to our leadership team."
